

Exclusion of liability for children

NBM 2024

Name of the child:

Name of legal guardian:

Stretch:

I hereby allow my child, _____, to participate in the race. In addition, I agree with all the points below on my behalf.

- As the legal guardian of the child participating in the National Park Bike Marathon 2024, I expressly acknowledge that the Organising Committee of the National Park Bike Marathon and all authorities, organizers, sponsors or official partners associated with the event do not assume any liability for personal injury, property damage or financial loss.
- As the legal guardian of the participating child, I hereby expressly and irrevocably declare to the organizer that I am responsible for the safety of the child himself and give my and the child's consent to bear all dangers and risks arising from the implementation of the event myself.
- Furthermore, the child is insured with an insurance company licensed in Switzerland for the statutory liability of personal injury and property damage in an amount appropriate for such events. The legal guardian is aware of the physical and technical requirements of the route as well as the proper functioning of the child's equipment and ensures the child's sufficient physical health and fitness. The organizer recommends a prior consultation with a sports physician.
- It is mandatory to wear a helmet during the entire race. Swiss road traffic law must be complied with at all costs.
- As the legal guardian of the participating child, I am fully responsible for accidents caused by the child and the resulting damage to the organizer or third parties, subject to any contributory negligence. As a parent or legal guardian, the organiser fully indemnifies the organiser from all claims by third parties against the organiser in connection with the child's fault and also bears all costs incurred in this context.
- As the child's legal guardian, you undertake not to make any claims against persons, institutions or companies involved in the implementation of the event.
- Furthermore, as the child's legal guardian, you agree to the publication of images of the child from the event.
- My child undertakes to contact the organizer immediately if he or she withdraws from the race, otherwise a search operation will be initiated at the expense of the parent or legal guardian and the child.
- As the child's legal guardian, you and the child have read, acknowledged, and agree to be bound by the rules, terms, and regulations.

Date and signature of the legal guardian:
